BEST LAW FIRM

GARRIS, GARRIS, & GARRIS

Steve Garris jokes that while he doesn't expect to add any new lawyers in the near term (the next Garris won't graduate from law school for another 10 years), he does expect to be adding clients. The firm, Garris, Garris & Garris, has been owned and run by the Garris family for nearly 50 years. The lawyers on staff include Steve, his brother Mike, his dad and his sister Jacalen. His mom, Helen, is the office manager.

"We're like a doctor's office," says Steve Garris. "We grow by reputation."

Located in the heart of Ann Arbor on Washington Street, the firm is a general practice with an emphasis on personal injury. The firm also does wills, probate and other services.

Steve Garris says the key to the firm's success is its family atmosphere. The firm doesn't just operate under the philosophy of a family atmosphere, they really are family.
